AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL

UNVEILED BY KING

Veterans Attend Ceremony At Villers-Bretonneux

Amiens, July 22.

Early this afternoon King George solemnly unveiled the Australian National War Memorial erected at Villers-Bretonneux to the memory of 45,000 Australian soldiers who fell during the Great War on the French battlefields. A special train, conveying King George and Queen Elizabeth, arrived at the station of the village of Villers-Bretonneux soon after one o'clock. The road leading to the monument was lined by French infantry and mechanised units.

Before the monument a guard of honour composed of French, English and Australian ex-Servicemen had been drawn up, the Australian war veterans in khaki uniform and wide soft hat which had become so popular in France during the war.

On arrival at the monument, the British Sovereigns were welcomed by the singing of the British National anthem by a choir of French school children.

Among the official personalities present were the veteran General De Castennau, General Gamelin, General Grouard, Admiral Lacaze, Lord Birdwood, who commanded the Australian forces in the Great War, the British Ambassador, Sir Eric Phipps and the Foreign Minister, Lord Halifax.

LONDON TO HANKOW IN LESS THAN WEEK

Hankow, July 22.

Mr. W. R. Grange, director of the Hankow Light and Power Company, completed the journey by air from London to Hankow in six and a half days. He expects to finish the round trip back to London in just over a fortnight.

Mr. Grange is visiting Hankow on business and left England in an Imperial Airways plane making immediate contact with the Eurasia plane in Hong Kong and flying from there straight to Hankow.

He is spending a few days here before boarding the plane once again on the return trip to London. (Reuters).

Shortly after the arrival of the British Sovereigns a second special train, conveying President and Madame Lebrun arrived at Villers-Bretonneux. The Sovereigns greeted President and Madame Lebrun on British soil as the ground on which the Australian monument has been erected belongs to the British Empire as the result of a gift of the French nation just like the ground on which the Canadian monument stands at Vimy.

King George and President Lebrun delivered speeches following which the Last Post was sounded by buglers. On minute's silence was then observed. (Transocean).

LORD GORT PRESENT

At Leeds Hammond's Brilliant Batting

BARNETT TWICE DROPPED

England were dismissed for 223 runs in their first innings against Australia in the Fourth Test match at Leeds and at the close of play the Australians had lost one wicket for 32.

A feature of the English innings was the brilliant batting of Walter Hammond, captain of the side, who contributed a valuable 76. He was at the crease for over two hours.

London, July 22.

The weather is fine but dull for the Fourth Test and the wicket at Leeds is excellent. There were long queues at 4 a.m. and by 10 a.m. the ground was almost filled with spectators.

Wally Hammond was again successful with the spin of the coin and sent in England to bat. W. J. Edrich and Barnett opened the innings in the presence of 25,000 spectators. It was a grim struggle with McCormick, Waite and O'Reilly sending down numerous maiden overs.

Barnett was extremely lucky. He was dropped by O'Reilly, fielding at square-leg, when he had scored only six runs, and again by Brown, at second slip, when he had 11.

SHARP CRITICISM BY MR. JOHN LITTON

Marsman's Balance Sheet Said "Unhealthy"

Mr. J. L. Litton, a shareholder, severely criticised the balance sheet as "not only unsatisfactory and unhealthy but most shocking" at the annual meeting of the Marsman Hong Kong China, Ltd., which was held in the Company's offices at the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank Building this morning.

Mr. J. L. Litton said that although the company was organised primarily for the purpose of investigating, securing and working mines in the Colony and the leased territory, as well as in China, it seemed from the balance sheet that the management had been concentrating in speculation on metals to the extent of £212,000 against an overdraft for the same amount, resulting in a loss of about £60,000.

Mr. J. H. Marsman presided and in addressing the meeting said:—
The activities of the Company have been adversely affected by the outbreak of hostilities between China and Japan and the world-wide depression which set in since the Company's formation.

DEVELOPMENT WORK
A scheme was evolved under which studies of development work in South China were to be undertaken by a commission through four committees of experts for power, mining, industry and agriculture. The principles underlying the scheme received the support of leading British and Chinese officials and the Banks signified their willingness to co-operate in the matter of providing the finance for any individual project, which thorough study showed would be revenue-producing. Work in this connection steadily progressed; studies were made of, and in some cases, tenders submitted for various works among which I might mention a hydro-electric scheme, an investigation of electrical distribution and another of the mineral resources of South China.

THE MINING SIDE
On the mining side of the Company's activities an item of importance is represented by an investment of approximately £28,000 in a Dutch company, formed in Amsterdam under the name of N. V. Marsman's Algemeene Exploratieve Maatschappij for the purpose of investigating and exploring mining possibilities in the Dutch East Indies, Malaya and French Indo-China.

BIG ADVANCE
An advance of £120,000 at 7 per cent. interest was made to Coco Grove Inc. on the security of two dredgers then under construction, with the guarantee of Marsman and Co. Inc. as additional security. Eventually, an arrangement was completed whereby this loan was converted into shares at 50 centavos per share the guarantee of Marsman and Co. mentioned above remaining in force, such guarantee to cover reimbursement of the capital invested at 50 centavos a share plus a minimum dividend of 7 per cent per annum.

A loan was also made to the Itogon Mining Company of £40,000 bearing interest at 7 per cent. based on usual bank terms with the additional provision of a Marsman and Co. Inc. guarantee.

PHILIPPINE ACTIVITIES
Additionally, about £20,000 was invested in leading producing mines stock in the Philippines. Advantage was taken to average these holdings by a further investment of £20,000 on a lower market, making a total investment of approximately £40,000.

WAR OFFICE LIST
Following negotiations completed in London, I am happy to say that your Company has been placed on the War Office List of Contractors.

The management of the Vibro Piling Co. Ltd., was taken over with a financial interest in the Company and in addition to work in Hong Kong demonstrations are being given in Manila, where the outlook for this type of foundation is promising.

About the middle of the year, we took over Concrete Products Ltd. in Hong Kong. This subsidiary has shown steady advance.

In conclusion, I venture to think that the foregoing resume shows that, in spite of the disturbance caused by hostilities which temporarily put an end to many of the projects we had in view when the Company was formed, contacts have been made during the past year which will prove of considerable value when peace is restored.

SHAREHOLDER'S QUESTIONS
The Chairman then proposed the adoption of the report and accounts, but before the motion could be put to the vote, Mr. Litton said:

Your remarks regarding the activities of the Company are very interesting, but I still think that the Balance Sheet as presented to us today, is not only unsatisfactory and unhealthy, but most shocking. In your report to shareholders you stated: "Your Company was or-contingent liability for the uncalled capital is $95 per share.

Mr. Litton asked more questions, saying: Investments at cost stand at £163,000; how much of that sum represents investments in Hong Kong?—£16,087 represents Hong Kong investments and there remains £147,000 of which £12,000 is in the Coco Grove.

With regard to the leading producing mines in which we have invested £40,000, can you tell me whether all the companies in which we are interested are on a dividend paying basis?—This is shown in the report—they are all on a dividend paying basis.

Under fixed assets the item "Mine Development" expended to date £10,652, does this amount represent the Company's investment in the wolfram mine in the Leased Territories?—It does—the Needle Hill property.

TRADING LOSS

If so, can you give any reason why no reference is made either in the report or in the balance sheet concerning the working of this mine, particularly whether the venture has been profitable or otherwise?—There was a profit of £5,000 from the mine, which profits were taken up in the trading account.

In the profit and loss account trading loss stands at £7,354. Is that a further loss on metals?—It is not a further loss. It is the only loss sustained up to date.

The motion concerning the report and accounts was then put to the meeting, and it was carried unanimously.

On the proposal of Mr. Dankworth, seconded by the Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Messrs. Robert de Vos and T. B. Wilson were re-elected Directors. Mr. B. W. Mason was appointed a Director on the proposal of Mr. Wilson, seconded by Mr. de Vos.

Proposed by Mr. Litton, seconded by Mr. J. W. Hanson, Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews were re-elected auditors.

FORGED PASSAGE TICKET

Appearing on remand at the Central Court yesterday on a charge of uttering a forged compulsory passage ticket of the Sze Yap Shipping Company, two unemployed men, Cheung Wo and Ma Sau, were convicted and sentenced to two months' and three months' imprisonment, respectively. Mr. C. Y. Kwan appeared to conduct the prosecution, and Detective Sergeant J. Hunter was in charge of the case.

HAPPY VALLEY GAMBLING RAID SEQUEL

Hearing Further Adjourned

POLICE APPLY FOR WARRANT

On account of fresh evidence produced in connection with the case against Ma Tau-nam, who charged with permitting his residence, No. 20, Shan Kwong Road, to be used as a gaming house, a further adjournment was granted by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday on the application of Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones (for the defence), who told the Court that he wished to cross-examine the new witness and that he had not been given the opportunity to do so at the previous hearing.

The new witness was a police interpreter, who produced copies of translations of documents which the police had seized in a cabinet where checkers' chips and money were also kept.

The documents included bills addressed to Ma Tau-nam, some of them personal, others addressed to the family in general.

Among the documents was a cash book which contained several items of the cash accounts "to watchman on the roof, $15," on various dates in June and July.

The charge, against Ma Tau-nam was the sequel of the raid on No. 20 Shan Kwong Road by the police.

Mr. John Whyatt, Crown Counsel, appeared to conduct the prosecution.

Yesterday Mr. H. W. E. Heath, A.S.P., was recalled and he stated that during the raid he found a revolver and some ammunitions, the owner of which was Ma Tau-nam. The ownership of the weapon was further proved by Inspector Hopkins, who is in charge of the arms licence department.

After further arguments between Crown Counsel and Mr. Hugh-Jones, the hearing was adjourned till July 27 at 2.15 p.m.

Prior to the commencement of the hearing yesterday, the police applied for a warrant for the arrest of one of the persons who failed to appear to answer the charge of gambling.

Mr. Whyatt said the police were interested in the person, whose real name was Wong Yat-poh, but who informed the police that he was called Lam Foo.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

NEW USE FOR OLD BOOKS

One of the less known activities of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Hong Kong is the assistance that it gives for the education of poor children. It has an Educational Committee which supervises this work. It maintains a free primary school in Wanchai and helps to support many other children, both boys and girls, in the various secondary schools of the Colony.

Each child who is recommended for assistance in this way is considered by the Committee, and all the circumstances: the conditions of the home, the child's intellectual ability, and previous record, etc., are taken into account before making a decision. The result is that many promising children are given what amounts to a free scholarship for their secondary education. They are also provided with books by the Committee.

In order to be able to supply these children with the necessary books, the Committee appeals each year to the pupils of the various schools to give their old books for this purpose. A good number of books are received in this way, and thus a larger number of needy students can be helped. School books of all kinds, both English and Chinese, for the use of poor students may be sent to the Hon. Sec. of the Committee, Mr. H. de Figueiredo, c/o China Underwriters, Ltd., 4A, Des Voeux Road, or to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul c/o any of the Catholic Church rectories in Hong Kong or Kowloon.

ST. JAMES

The Apostle St. James whose feast is celebrated next Monday is called "St. James the Greater" to distinguish him from the other apostle of the same name, probably simply because he was a taller man. He was the brother of St. John the Evangelist, and was one of the first apostles to be called by Christ. He had previously been a follower of St. John the Baptist. (It was St. James the Less who was the first Bishop of Jerusalem and the author of the "Epistle of St. James.")

A tradition for which it is hard to find any justification credits him with having visited Spain, though it does not seem to be on account of this story, but rather on account of the belief that his body was brought to Spain, that he became honoured as the patron saint of that country. He is honoured particularly at Compostela in Galicia, and many towns named Santiago and San Diego are reminders of the devotion to him that prevailed among the Spanish people.

People who visited his shrine at Compostela used to bring back a scallop shell as proof of their journey, and this led to the adoption of the shell as the sign of a pilgrim.

THE FIRST FRENCH POPE

France is celebrating this month the thousandth anniversary of the birth of the first French Pope, Sylvester II. He was born at Aurillac, in Auvergne, and it is in this city that the commemoration will be held. The honorary committee in charge of the celebration is headed by President Lebrun, and includes several Ministers of State as well as all the French Cardinals.

Sylvester II, whose family name was Gerbert, lived at a very troubled period when it was very difficult to keep the Papacy from being embroiled in the political quarrels of the Emperors and, as one whose whole bent was towards scholarship rather than diplomacy, he found himself at times very unhappy in his high office. He proved, however, an able and firm administrator, and dealt sternly with the abuses that were brought to his notice.

As a young man he had studied in Spain and had attended the Arab schools of Cordova and Seville. He was a mathematician of considerable skill and wrote several works dealing with mathematics and physical science. He was very largely responsible for the adoption of the Arabic numerals in Europe and it has also been claimed for him that he was the inventor of the pendulum clock. He had been Archbishop of Rheims, and afterwards Archbishop of Ravenna, before his elevation to the Papacy.

CATHOLICS ON THE AUSTRALIAN TEST TEAM

At an open-air meeting of the Catholic Evidence Guild in England—an organisation of priests and laymen who explain Catholic doctrine in Hyde Park and similar places—when one speaker was telling his audience that Catholics were to be found in every walk of life, a heckler asked "Are there any Catholics on the Australian Cricket Team?" and the speaker was able to reply that on that actual day—it was a Sunday—five Catholic members of the Test team had been at Mass together in the Cathedral.

The five were: Fingleton, O'Reilly, McCabe, Hassett and Fleetwood-Smith. The speaker added that he would not have mentioned the matter if it had not been asked, but he pointed to their attendance at the duties of their religion, as an example that was worth following. He added too that in their own country some of these famous cricketers not merely went to Mass on Sunday morning but also took an active part in Catholic work by selling Catholic periodicals and pamphlets outside the church door.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ Scientist Hong Kong

SUBJECT—TRUTH

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches tomorrow, July 24, will be "Truth." The Golden Text will be: Teach me thy way, O Lord.

I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name (Psalms 86/11) Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible. "And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him. And Jesus answering said, Bring thy son hither. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the child. (Luke 9).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If sickness is real, it belongs to immortality; if true it is part of Truth. Would you attempt with drugs, or without, to destroy a quality or condition of Truth? But if sickness and sin are illusions, the awakening from this mortal dream, or illusion will bring us into health, holiness, and immortality. This awakening is the forever coming of Christ, the advanced appearing of Truth, which casts out error and heals the sick, this is the salvation which comes through God, the divine Principle. Love as demonstrated by Jesus. (Page 230).

FOOT ITCH

Athlete's Foot

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. E-28, at least 537, of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

BEWARE OF IT SPREADING

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The sides of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, salve or ointments seldom do any good.

HERE'S HOW TO TREAT IT

The germ that causes the disease is known as Trinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ, so you can see why ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

ITCHING STOPS IMMEDIATELY

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

BATTLESHIP TONNAGES

Cost Of Building In U.S. And Great Britain

The announcement by the First Lord of the Admiralty (writes a Naval Correspondent) that a new displacement limitation of 45,000 tons is to replace the existing 35,000-ton limit for battleships did not come as a surprise.

The increase has been brought about by Japan's unwillingness to disclose the details of the ships she now has under construction. At the same time, the maximum gun calibre of sixteen inches remains unaltered.

The new tonnage limit is higher than the British Government desired, but was brought about at the wish of the United States, whose naval advisers favour the mounting of a greater number of 16-inch guns per ship than British naval opinion considers necessary or desirable.

GUNS

The five British battleships now being built, King George V., Prince of Wales, Anson, Jellicoe, and Bantey, will be ships of 35,000 tons, armed with 14-inch guns. The two new battleships to be laid down under this year's programme will carry 16-inch guns and will not exceed a standard displacement of 40,000 tons.

France will adhere to the original Treaty limit of 35,000 tons, provided no other Continental Power exceeds it, and at present it seems unlikely that either Italy or Germany will wish to do so.

Taking the average prices of warship building in Britain and the United States, battleships of the sizes mentioned below would cost approximately as follows:

Tonnage.	Britain	U.S.A.
35,000	£3,000,000	£12,000,000
40,000	£3,200,000	£13,700,000
45,000	£3,350,000	£15,500,000

Building charges in the United States are roughly fifty per cent. higher than in this country.

In India he spent nearly all his military career there, and participated in many Frontier campaigns. He also saw fighting in Burma and China.

"A WEALTH of HEALTH"

"I mean to express with all my heart that your Kalzana has given wonderful results in my little girl, who was ailing for some time," writes a grateful mother.

If your Child is ailing then give it Kalzana

If any of your children are delicate and irritable, suffer from delayed teething and weak bones, it is more than probable that a lack of minerals is the cause of the trouble.

Give your children Kalzana tablets or powder for a few weeks and you will soon see the difference in their health. It strengthens the cells of blood, body and nerves, increases the power of resistance and makes bones strong, and teeth white and healthy.

Give Kalzana to the grown-up members of your family, and they, too, will enjoy continual good health.

Kalzana Tablets are sold in bottles of 75 and 45. Kalzana is the most economical of all calcium preparations.

Malaria, Yesterday And Today

From the earliest times malaria was the curse of humanity. Amongst the Jews in Ancient Palestine, this malady was certainly known, for we read in their books that Jehovah chastised men with "fever" and it is most likely that this referred to "marsh fever" or malaria.

The Greeks were scared of malaria, which did much more damage than the greatest generals. It is thought that the malady which decimated the Greeks during the siege of Troy was probably malaria, born in the marshes of the district where the struggle was taking place.

The Romans also suffered greatly from malaria, owing to the fact that their capital, Rome, was directly in contact with the notorious Pontine Marshes, the latter being the place where malaria-carrying mosquitos multiplied most easily. The Romans were quite convinced that these marshes constituted a danger, for they carried out vast drainage works in order to dry up these regions. Their underground drainage system included many conduits six feet in diameter extending over hundreds of miles, traces of which can still be seen today.

In one of his books, entitled "Malaria, a neglected factor in the history of Greece and Rome," Jones stated that malaria sapped the Greeks and transformed the Romans, who were much more vigorous, into bloodthirsty brutes.

There is no need to stress the fact that today malaria is still a scourge. As in the time of the Greeks and Romans malaria can still play an important part in war. During the Great War, in 1916, the Allied troops on the Balkan front were almost wiped out owing to malaria. Out of an army with a strength of one hundred and sixteen thousand men, sixty thousand were down with malaria and three hundred and seventy-nine died of it.

However, the decision in a war of today depends no longer on malaria, for humanity has taken possession of quinine, a powerful medicine, thanks to which this but all relapses are treated in the malady can be prevented and

BULLET IN HIS NECK 21 YEARS

For 21 years Alfred Hubert Cleal, aged 49, of Morden, Surrey, had a bullet in his neck. He was shot in 1916 while serving as a machine-gunner. Last year the bullet was removed by an operation, blood poisoning set in, and now he has died.

At the inquest a verdict of death from war wounds was recorded.

cured. This was proved on the Balkan front where, in 1917, there were only a thousand cases of malaria and seventy-one deaths, because energetic steps had been taken in fighting the malady with quinine.

As the forces engaged in 1917 were twice the number of those on this front in 1916, these figures speak for themselves.

According to the Malaria Commission of the League of Nations one should take for malaria prophylaxis a daily dose of 6 grains during the whole malarial season, and for treatment a daily dose of 15-20 grains during 5-7 days. After-treatments are not given, medicine, thanks to which this but all relapses are treated in the same way as the acute attack.

Blue Eyes In Ceylonese Temple

GENETICIST ASSERTS A THEORY

A pair of blue eyes in Dalada Maligawa, the Temple of the Tooth, at Kandy, Ceylon, has confirmed a British geneticist in his theories about physical characteristics being hereditary.

He is Professor R. Ruggles Gates, of London University, recently returned from a preliminary blood-grouping survey of isolated tribal entities in the East.

The majority of Kandy natives have black-brown eyes. So when Professor Ruggles Gates noticed the bright blue eyes of his guide at the temple, he sought out the history of the man's family, confirming his theories.

TRIBES CLASSIFIED

While in India the Professor visited tribes in the remote hills and forests, taking hundreds of photographs of the people. At the same time he made arrangements for classifying tribes according to blood-groups during the absence.

"India is a living museum for the anthropologist," he told the News Chronicle. "No other country has so many human types. Many of the tribes are so isolated that they are practically unmixed. The Todas, ancestors of the gypsies, would furnish the artist with models of Biblical men and women, and the people of Rachal Island have been inbreeding for 1,000 years with only a trace of outside blood."

As information about tribal inheritance of characteristics of all sorts—from colour of eyes to bad temper and "second sight"—is gathered, it will be sent for tabulation to the Bureau of Human Heredity Gower Street, W.C., world centre for the survey of facts about heredity, of which Professor Ruggles Gates is chairman.

Already the hereditary nature of many diseases is fully documented in the files of the bureau and on the basis of a patient's family history he can be advised how to check a disease and prevent it developing in his children.

"But this vital work is handicapped for lack of funds," said Professor Ruggles Gates. "Our need of the moment is for £500 to make a complete world survey of the facts about cancer and tuberculosis."

"Two research workers in two years could bring our knowledge to such a point that the path of prevention of these diseases would be plainly indicated."

The professor does not believe the "sacred tooth of Buddha," the temple's famous relic, is genuine. "It is far too large to be a human tooth," he said.

A YANK AT OXFORD

Robert Taylor is to be seen at the Majestic Theatre today in "A Yank at Oxford," the story of an athletic-puffed-headed college boy from America who studies at the famous English university under a scholarship.

A simple and authentic delineation of life in the old university, the picture shows how Oxford changes the young American's ideas on life. The film is full of gentle humour and human incidents, and is thoroughly satisfying.

Maureen O'Sullivan heads the imposing supporting cast, which includes Lionel Barrymore, Edmund Gwenn and Vivien Leigh.

VENETIAN COMPOSER DOES WELL WITH SHAKESPEAREAN THEME

The only novelty of this year's music festival in Florence Italy, was the performance of "Marcantonio & Cleopatra," by the Venetian composer, G. Francesco Malipiero.

Taking his theme from Shakespeare's tragedy, Malipiero wrote his own libretto, and by elimination and skillful compression, succeeded in retaining the essence of the Shakespearean drama, rendering it in three acts sub-divided into several scenes, and, to link the acts, explain the sequence, and bridge over any hiatus, adopting a brief comment or announcement spoken, as by a herald or chorus announced, from behind the scenes.

The piece follows closely the scene laid on Pompey's Galley in Shakespearean drama. In the first act, Antony leaves Cleopatra to return to Rome after two interviews expressive of the consternation and distress of the Queen.

A symphonic intermezzo follows, interrupted by mysterious voices warning of the faithlessness of Antony, who has been persuaded for political reasons to marry Octavia, sister of Octavius Caesar, and the act closes with the announcement of the marriage, by means of a messenger from Rome to Cleopatra, and with her despair, and closes on her cry to Charmian, "Pity me, Charmian, but do not speak to me."

Mrs. Dovey's Thrilling Race Against Time

CATCHES DAEDALUS IN FRANTIC RUSH

As the Imperial Airways plane Daedalus was on the tarmac at Kai Tak airport at 5.57 a.m. yesterday, her engines being warmed up preparatory to taking off for Bangkok within three minutes, officials of the company standing by the plane noticed a car rushing through the gates at great speed. Frantic tooting of the horn, however, was not sufficient cause to disturb the schedule of Imperial Airways, Ltd.

The steps had already been taken away, but Dr. (Mrs.) A. L. J. Dovey, the last-minute passenger, proved agile enough to climb on in time although clutching a passport in one hand.

Mrs. Dovey is visiting medical officer to the Chinese hospitals. It appears that her thrilling race against time was the result of a burglary from her home, a flat on the second floor of Queen Mary Hospital building, when £25 in notes, a fountain pen, and some small money was stolen from her bag.

The thief entered the room of Dr. J. E. Dovey, medical officer at the Hospital, and Mrs. Dovey's husband, and must have walked by Mrs. Dovey who was sleeping on the balcony. The bag was lying on the dressing table in Dr. Dovey's room.

Two hours before the plane was due to leave, the theft was discovered. The all-important passport to London was in the bag! The doctor and his wife commenced a frantic search of the house and garden and eventually found it. The passport was there. The thief had taken all the money. Then began the frantic ride to Kai Tak.

Mrs. Dovey has gone to England on two months' leave to visit her 11-year-old daughter.

DECLARATIONS GRANTED

Application In Estate Case

An application seeking certain declarations regarding the property of the late Mr. Lau Ping, who died in 1898, made by Mr. J. Hennessy Seth and Mr. S. Hampden Ross, receivers and managers of the estate, was granted by the Acting Chief Justice, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, in the Supreme Court yesterday.

Defendants were Lau Lam-shi, executrix of the will of Lau Yufong, and Lau Yik-cheuk, administrator de bonis non of the estate of Lau Ping.

The Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jnr., instructed by Mr. S. Ng Quinn, appeared for plaintiffs. Mr. F. K. D'Almada, Jnr., watched the proceedings on behalf of the first defendant, while the second was neither present nor represented in Court.

Counsel said that the first defendant was the widow of Lau Yufong, who died in 1927. Both he and the second defendant were the sons of Lau Ping. There had been considerable litigation concerning the estate and the present action was brought because the plaintiffs, having been ordered to wind up the property, sought certain declarations regarding a piece of land. The reason why the action was not brought earlier was because the accounts were somewhat complicated and it was only recently that the matters in question came to light.

Among the declarations sought by the plaintiffs were that the monies advanced to Lau Po-cho were from the estate of Lau Ping, and that the sum of $12,812.32 with

KAU SING SOLD FOR $50,000

Built In 1926 At Cost Of $250,000

The s.s. Kan Sing, Government rescue tug which ran aground at Ching Hue Island during the September typhoon last year, has been sold for $50,000 according to information from an authoritative source received yesterday.

The cost of building the tug, which was launched at the Talkoo Dockyards in 1926, was $250,000. On running aground, the Kan Sing had been severely damaged. Although she was refloated, Government has finally decided on sale rather than repairs.

Much has been said pro and con in the past on the cost of building the tug and its efficiency in rescue work during typhoons. This controversy now ends with the purchase of it by the Moller Steamship Company, Shanghai.

The tug was put up for auction by Government two months ago, but found no buyers. The Moller Company has gone as far afield as Australia and South Africa in search of tugs and their representative, Mr. Gerondal decided that Hong Kong was near enough for a large saving in transportation.

The Kan Sing may yet go into one of the Hong Kong docks for further repairs before being towed to Shanghai.

HOIFUNG'S THANKS FOR VACCINE GIFT

International Medical Relief Society's Work

The Chairman of the International Medical Relief Society has received a letter from director of the Catholic Mission in Hoifung (Kwangtung) expressing gratitude for the gift of anti-cholera vaccine recently dispatched by the Society.

The letter follows:—"I am directed by my missionary colleagues and by the Magistrate of Hoifung to convey to yourself and your Society our most heartfelt gratitude for your generous gift of 10,000 c.c. anti-cholera vaccine, which has been received by us all as a Heaven-sent blessing.

"The cholera epidemic has already made hundreds of victims in this district, which is suffering too, for the very serious shortage of food, owing to the fact that this year we had no rice crops and the fishing business has been completely stopped by Japanese destroyers. You cannot imagine what a great relief and help you have given us.

DOOR-TO-DOOR CAMPAIGN

"As soon as the vaccine arrived all the nurses of the town were ordered by the Magistrate to carry out inoculation from door to door, and a certain number of them were dispatched to the villages where the epidemic is more severe. "Hundreds of lives will be saved by your generosity and for this we renew our grateful appreciation."

Interest was still due to the estate under the mortgage and further charge.

Chang Tin-po, of the Land Office, gave evidence regarding the land in question, after which Mr. Ross testified that after having gone through the accounts he found that the sum of $12,812.32 was outstanding under the mortgage and further charge. He was satisfied that these monies were advanced out of the estate.

In granting the declarations, His Lordship gave costs against the second defendant. The costs regarding the first defendant were ordered to be taken out of the estate.

MUSICAL INTERLUDES

THE rapidly with which the storm clouds gather in this troubled world is perfectly amazing and the time they take to disperse is a long and anxious period.

An article in a leading London newspaper received by the air mail dated July 11 congratulates the British Premier for his courage and patience in dealing with the recent troubles in Europe. This is what it says:—

"Fifteen leading newspapers of the world acclaimed Mr. Neville Chamberlain as the man who has saved Europe and the world from war. They point to the success of his policy as a triumph of courage and hard-headed realism. Six weeks ago nations anxiously watched Czechoslovakia. Hitler was said to be ready to march in."

"Today the situation is being resolved in the peaceful atmosphere of conference rooms. Since then storm clouds are gathering again."

The Czechoslovakia affair is not all settled. The occupation of the Parables by France, who considered the encroachments of the Japanese near Hainan were a menace to Indo-China, is the first occasion of the Japanese bluff being called.

ONLY a few weeks ago an Anglo-Italian rapprochement was concluded yet the official visit of His Majesty King George VI to Paris has been completely ignored by the press in Rome. It will be remembered that ITALY'S LACK OF COURTESY was shown over the King's Coronation but then no rapprochement was in sight.

On July 14, Japan found it necessary to cancel the 1940 Olympic Games—"for various reasons." This is not very important politically but it has a certain significance.

On July 16, Soviet troops are reported to have crossed the border into Manchukuo at Hungchun and are fortifying an important hill.

They are reported to have GATHER NEAR some six divisions in the neighbourhood, supported by aircraft and mechanised units, as a result of this

PEIPING-HANKOW RAILWAY BOMBED

Hankow, July 22. Nine heavy Japanese bombers escorted by pursuits bombed sections of the Peiping-Hankow Railway in the vicinity of Hankow this morning according to Chinese reports.

The raiders appeared above Hankow from the north-west, dropping several bombs on sections of the Peking-Hankow Railway just north-west of the Chinese military aerodrome in Hankow. They then are said to have crossed the aerodrome without dropping any bombs there.

They are reported to have heavily bombed the Peiping-Hankow Railway in the vicinity of Sunlinmen station. The Japanese pursuits flew high above the cloud banks while the bombers flew just below ten thousand feet.

Although the Japanese aircraft are said to have met with heavy anti-aircraft fire some of the raiders are said to have been hit.

It is now established that the Peking-Hankow Railway was not hit and that the bombs landed on the north-western and north-eastern ends of the aerodrome without causing any damage except for bomb craters in the open fields.—(Reuter).

FATHER JACQUINOT RETURNS

Huge Donations Obtained in America

Hankow, July 22. Father Jacquinot, Chairman of the International Relief Committee, and founder of the Nantao refugees' zone in Shanghai, passed through Tokyo yesterday aboard the s.s. Empress of Asia on his way back from America to China, according to a Tokyo message.

Interviewed by pressmen, Father Jacquinot said that he had received $700,000. donations in America and Canada for Chinese refugees. During his stay in America, he had an interview with President Roosevelt.—(Central News).

JAPANESE CHARGE

Shanghai, July 22. The Japanese Charge D'Affaires at Shanghai, Mr. Tani, has informed foreign diplomats that in the opinion of the Japanese authorities trains on the Canton-Hankow Railway carrying foreigners were abused by the Chinese for transport of munition.

The Chinese Government had goods vans with munition attached to these trains.

Mr. Tani suggested that foreign diplomats should make representations at Hankow that such abuse must be stopped. Furthermore, Mr. Tani recommended to foreign travellers to use only special trains without good vans.—(Transocean).

LOCAL OBSERVANCES FOR FUNERAL OF QUEEN MARIE

The Colonial Secretary issued the following communique last night:—Telegraphic information has been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies that the funeral of Her late Majesty Queen Marie of Roumania will take place on Sunday, July 24. All flags on Government buildings and launches will be flown at half-mast from 8 a.m. to sunset on that day.

tension between Moscow and Tokyo.

MR. MAXIM LITVINOFF, Com-missar for Foreign Affairs, appears to have given Mr. Shigemitsu, Japanese Ambassador to Moscow, a very curt and proper reply to the Japanese protest. Mr. Litvinoff said:—

"If Japan regarded that the threats and attempted intimidation, which had succeeded elsewhere as a good diplomatic method, he should know he would not be able to find successful application of the method in Moscow."

He was surprised that an experienced diplomat should treat official maps so disdainfully. Now Moscow is calling Japan's bluff. It will be seen, therefore, that in the short space of a week the whole world situation has so changed that nobody knows or can predict what even the near future will bring, though one highly experienced diplomat describes these rumblings as the silent beginning of a world war.

MR. J. RICHARD ADLARD HOMEWARD BOUND

U.S. Exchange Student Who Helped At Canton Hospital Following Japanese Air Raid

WORK OF TWO YOUNG AMERICAN LADIES IN PEIPING

Among the many interesting people who boarded the R. M. S. Empress of Japan, homeward bound, yesterday was Mr. Richard Adlard of Salem, Oregon. Mr. Adlard was an Exchange Student, 1937-38, from Oregon State College, Corvallis, to Lingnan University, Canton.

If interest on shipboard was, perhaps, centred very much on the members of the World Student Delegation, also ready to sail for home after an extended tour through China, Mr. Adlard was hardly neglected by the many people who had come to appreciate his presence in Canton and at Lingnan through some of the most trying moments in the history of the city and of the University.

Among those who were on board to wish Mr. Adlard all the best that the future can bestow were Mr. Au Yeung Tak-sau, president of the graduating class at Lingnan University, and Mr. Mui Tsit-yeung, Mr. Adlard's room-mate through two semesters at Lingnan.

As Mr. Adlard was conversing with his friends, a Chinese gentleman approached the group and asked him if he had not met him at the Canton Hospital, after an air-raid, helping the hospital staff to cope with the endless stream of wounded civilians? Could there be a more fitting demonstration of gratitude to a noble gentleman?

TWO AMERICAN LADIES As late as last December there were people to be met in Tientsin and in Peiping, most of them Chinese, who spoke enthusiastically of two young American ladies who were not victims of hysteria when while visiting Peiping last July they were confronted with a war which prevented their leaving the city. They attached themselves to one of the field hospital units organized by the Peking University Medical College, which did invaluable service in the early days of the war. Many of the soldiers who were treated for their wounds by these voluntary workers from the P.U.M.C. owe their lives to this unselfish service.

The two young ladies were both from Oregon State College and they had been Exchange Students, 1936-37, to Lingnan University. They were Miss Betty M. Chandler of Eugene and Miss Letty M. Warrington of Corvallis.

Oregon State College may well be proud of the four Exchange Students they have sent abroad to live for a year on the campus of a Chinese University. When much has been forgotten of life on the campus, be it in time of peace or in time of war, the memory of the friendship and the service that these four representatives of the youth of America have unselfishly given to their hosts, the youth of China, will yet remain.

Perhaps the fact that Mr. Adlard is known to his many friends not as Mr. Adlard, but simply as "Dick," would testify to the high regard in which he is held.

Arthur Locke, the former South African amateur golfer and now a professional, won the Irish Golf championship today with an aggregate of 292, made up by four rounds of 80, 73, 69, 70 over 72 holes.

He broke the course record in the third round with a card of 69, and thus becomes the first claimant for the prize of £200 offered to players breaking 70.

Henry Cotton was second with an aggregate of 293.—(Reuter).

THEFT FROM A CAR

Mr. A. Morris appeared as complainant before Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday in the case in which Li Chun, unemployed and 80 Shun a marine hawk, were charged with theft of a pair of glasses, jacket and a fountain pen and receiving the same, respectively. Mr. Morris said he left the articles in his car which was parked in Des Voeux Road West.

Detective Sergeant MacVey prosecuted.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE OF A CHINESE AIR ACE NARRATED

Sank Japanese Warship And Shot Down Pursuit Plane

The thrilling experience in bombing Japanese warships in the Yangtze River at Anking on July 12 is recounted by a pilot, Mei Yuan-pai, who with two other Chinese airmen were responsible for sinking a Japanese warship and shooting down a Japanese pursuit plane which challenged them. But their plane was shot down by another Japanese pursuit. Mei and one other descended safely by parachute, but the second airman was killed.

"We received orders to bomb a Japanese aircraft-carrier reported to be anchoring in the Yangtze River at Anking on July 12. The mechanics loaded bombs on the racks and carefully inspected the machines, and refuelled them. When everything was ready, we boarded our planes," narrated Mei Yuan-pai.

"We flew along the Yangtze River and soon we were over Anking. We ascended as high as 7,400 metres.

"We sighted a large-size warship anchored in the river. We zoomed over it and emptied the bomb-racks.

"After carrying out our mission, we turned to fly back, ascending to an altitude of some 7,000 metres. Over the north of Anking we sighted a squadron of Japanese planes cruising at about 2,000 metres.

BULLETS AT PLANE

"The Japanese planes had observed us. One of them ascended in our direction at full speed. Gunner Chao Ling-shu on my plane immediately swung his machine-gun into action. He showered hail of bullets on the enemy plane which was now only about 1,000 metres away. The machine caught fire and crashed.

"At this juncture another Japanese plane had ascended and got behind us. When it was only 400 metres from us, it opened fire on us. Gunner Pi was hit, but despite his wounds, he continued to return the fire.

JAPANESE CONCENTRATION AT HUKOW

Kiukiang, July 22. Large numbers of Japanese troops continue to be massed at Hukow. By last night the total Japanese strength there had increased to 7,000 men and over 1,100 tanks and armoured cars. The ominous roll along the Yangtze front, meanwhile, continues unbroken. Yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, a Japanese war vessel, opened up a broadside of over a dozen shells on the Chinese positions at Sinking, but promptly steamed away afterwards.

A large Japanese cruiser, with eight planes aboard, was seen to pass through Kweichow upriver for Anking yesterday afternoon. (Central News).

APPEAL TO SUPPORT LORD MAYOR'S FUND

London, July 22. In view of the continued bombings and distress in Chinese cities and villages, Cardinal Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster, renews his appeal to Catholics to support the Lord Mayor's Fund, "which British administrators describe as their sheet anchor."

Mr. G. S. Moss, Consul-General at Hankow, speaking at the Mansion House today, said that the Fund had prevented the British mission hospitals from bankruptcy, enabled the British in China to hold up their heads and spurred others to similar efforts. The Fund is now over £130,000. (Reuters).

Developments In Manchukuo Border Incident

JAPAN CANNOT POSSIBLY BE ENGAGED ON DOUBLE FRONT

London, July 22. When the Manchukuo frontier incident first became known little thought was given to it in view of the more serious situation in Central Europe but since Thursday the press and political circles have begun to regard the Shangkufeng incident as more than a mere violation of the frontier. A few persons in authoritative positions believe that the present diplomatic controversy will lead to a clash between Japan and Soviet Russia, but it is generally feared that a further increase of the tension already existing between the two countries will have a pronounced effect on the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The failure of the Japanese offensive against Hankow is also believed by military experts to be due to the latest clash since the prospect of trouble in the North has compelled the Japanese to send troops back to Manchukuo which had originally been moved south for the military campaign against the Chinese capital.

It was revealed a few days ago that the unexpected Chinese resistance had compelled the Japanese General Staff to transfer a part of the troops stationed in Manchukuo to China but it is believed today that these troops are now returning to the northern post without having engaged in action on the Hankow front.

RECENT ACTIONS

Recent actions of the Japanese Government have indicated that Japan is straining every nerve and concentrating all her forces on the single goal, namely, a victory in China, before all her reserves are sapped and the necessity of engaging with Russia, or at a second front, would, therefore, present an almost insurmountable obstacle.

Attention is also drawn to the fact that the present season would be extremely favourable for a Russian military campaign since the early Siberian winter would hamper Japanese military operations even more than Russian troops.

Moscow's aggressive attitude is therefore believed to be based on the supposition that Japan could not possibly be engaged on a double front and that through such

SOVIET-JAPANESE CLASH PREDICTED

Shanghai, July 22. A well-known foreign astrologist here, who predicted the Lukouchiao incident three weeks before it broke out, forecast today that the Soviet-Japanese clash will commence on July 26.

He also predicted that Soviet bombers will raid Japan extensively on August 5 and that a revolution is due in Japan by October. At the end of the year China will triumph over Japan in the present hostilities, he added. (International).

MINORITIES' STATUTE COMPLETED IN PRAGUE

Four Separate Autonomous Diets Is Main Provision

CAPT. WIEDEMANN'S LONDON VISIT EASES TENSION

Prague, July 22. Four separate parliaments in Bohemia, Moravia-Silesia, Slovakia and Ruthenia, with provincial autonomy but with state finance, foreign policy and questions of defence reserved to the National Assembly, is reported to be one of the main points in the Czechoslovakian Government's Minorities' Statute, now completed.

In each of the four diets, seats will be divided into electorates representing the various nationalities. Thus, the Bohemian diet will consist of Czechs and Germans; the diet in Moravia-Silesia will consist of Czechs, Germans and Hungarians; the Slovakian diet will consist of Slovaks and Germans; whilst in the Ruthenian diet there will be Czechs, Poles and Germans.

Each diet, acting as a body, will control general local matters, while each national section will have charge of questions particularly affecting its own nationality.

The draft of the Statute was examined yesterday by a Parliamentary committee of the Government majority. (Reuters).

TENSION RELAXED

London, July 22. Political quarters here declare that the visit to London of Captain Wiedemann is an indication that the tension in Central Europe has relaxed to some extent and that conditions in that region have considerably improved as compared with the situation prevailing a month ago.

The Premier and his closest collaborators, so it is said, now take a far more optimistic view of the situation than some weeks ago, and are convinced that a peaceable settlement will be reached in the Sudeten German question. (Transocean).

JAPANESE BROUGHT TO HALT IN SHANSI All Attempts To Cross Yellow River Nullified

Shanghai, Honan, July 22. Stiff Chinese resistance and brisk guerrilla activities in south Shansi have nullified Japanese attempts to cross the Yellow River and invade eastern Shensi and western Honan.

The railway and highways in that area have been damaged beyond repair by the guerrillas, thus greatly impeding Japanese military transportation and hampering operations.

It is estimated that the Japanese Twenty Japanese field guns, 60 force in south Shansi now number about 20,000, a great part of which is concentrated to the southwest of Kianghsien.

According to intelligence reports, the invaders are attempting to push towards eastern Shensi and western Honan in three columns. The first column is to strike westward from Wensi to capture Ishih, Lintsing Yuntai, and Fenglingtu where it will attempt to cross the Yellow River to Shensi on the Lunghai Railway.

CANNOT ADVANCE. Another column, in the meantime, will thrust westward by the Howma-Hotsing highway to reach Yumenkow, on the east bank of the Yellow River.

The third column will drive along the River in south Shansi towards Maotungtu, where they will cross the stream to cut the Lunghai Railway in north Honan. However, so far none of the Japanese columns has been able to make any advance. (Central News).

Chinese banks have lost more than $80,000,000 in agrarian loans to farmers in districts of Kiangsu and Chekiang Provinces which are now under Japanese military occupation, says the Sin Wan Pao. About 60 per cent. of these loans, which have almost entirely been defaulted under the present circumstances, were made by Government banks, while the remaining 40 per cent. were granted by private commercial banks. Apart from these, adds the report, loans to individuals and credits granted by the two provincial governments have also gone into default.

The Shensi Provincial Government has drawn up a project for the settlement of war refugees in Liping reclamation area on the Shensi-Szechuen border, says a message to the "Standard." The provincial administration, according to the message, has submitted the project to the Central authorities with a request that the latter appropriate funds for the execution of the project.

AGGRESSIVE BATTING BY HAMMOND

D. C. S. Compton who was bowled
by O'Reilly for 14.

With 29 runs on the board, Edrich was bowled off his pads by O'Reilly, who sent down an off-break that came off rather fast. The Middlesex batsman had scored 12 (29-1-12). At this stage Barnett had scored 25.

Hardstaff joined Barnett but the Gloucester batsman did not stay long. He edged a ball from Walte to the boundary but in the next over was run out following a brilliant return by Hassett, fielding at mid-on. Hardstaff made 4 (34-2-4).

Hammond became associated with Barnett and the English skipper sent up the 51 after 100 minutes play at which period Hammond had scored 7 in 40 minutes. Lunch was taken with the score at 62 for 2 wickets, Hammond being not out with 18 and Barnett 25, extras 3.

After lunch the crowd swelled to 30,000. The Princess Royal also being present.

Hammond played aggressive cricket and twice sent Fleetwood-Smith to the railings and hit a six off a no-ball in McCormick's first over. Hammond scored 28 runs in 20 minutes.

With the total at 88, Barnett mistimed his hit and skied the ball to give his namesake behind the stumps an easy catch off McCormick's bowling. (88-3-30).

HAMMOND OUT

Paynter joined Hammond and the pair took the score to 142 before Hammond was bowled by O'Reilly when he played outside at turning ball. Hammond batted brilliantly to score 50 in 100 minutes and hit a six and six boundary hits sent up England's 102 after 140 minutes play.

In the first over after a break for refreshment, Hammond was bowled. He had made 76 and batted for a glorious 140 minutes. He hit a six and ten boundaries during his stay at the crease. (142-4-76).

The partnership realised 56 runs in 80 minutes, Paynter having scored 28 in 85 minutes.

CHARMED LIFE

Compton was the next batsman in and he had a charmed life.

Bradman, the Australian captain, brought on a double change in bowlers. Fleetwood-Smith and O'Reilly both returning after a rest. The total was now 188 when Paynter was stamped by Barnett off Fleetwood-Smith for 28 (171-5-28). In the next over Compton was bowled middle stump by O'Reilly. Compton scored 14 runs. (171-6-14).

AUSTRALIA BATS

With 45 minutes left before close of play, Bradman sent in Fingleton and Brown to open the innings against the bowling of Kenneth Farnes and Bowes, the former being hostile. Farnes almost bowled Fingleton and Brown was also uncomfortable. At 28 Wright relieved Bowes and with his first ball, a long hop, dismissed Brown who mistimed his shot. Brown scored 22 (28-1-22).

Stumps were drawn with the total at 32 for 1, Fingleton being not out 9 and Barnett 1.—(Reuter).

GOVERNOR VISITS

CITY DESPITE

RAID ALARM

Canton, July 22.

The air raid alarm was sounded at 7.25 a.m. today when Sir Geoffrey Northcote, Governor of Hong Kong, was about to leave Shamshui to visit the city. His programme was carried out despite the alarm.

Japanese warplanes dropped bombs on Yenchingau and Kwatong on the Canton-Hankow Railway this morning. Another squadron later bombed Sheklung and Shektan on the East River. Several bombs dropped on the water and blew up many boats and junks, the bridges being intact.—(International).
